Who are We?

Christian Action Integrated Service Centre for the Ethnic Minorities (YTM) has always been active in integrating Ethnic Minorities (EMs) into the local community. Since 2014, we have started the Ambassador Scheme for Ethnic Minority Youths (Urban) sponsored by Home Affairs Department. The scheme focuses on the youths from India, Pakistan, Nepal and Thailand within the age range of 6- 24. We aim at increasing their self-reliance, developing their talents and building up their hope in society.

What is the Scheme about?

Ambassadors and volunteers from all ethnicities are recruited and trained to do outreaching in the community

We want to involve you in activities that will increase your understanding and awareness of different cultures

We organise interest classes, give consultation, advice, and conduct case referrals when needed

Volunteers Wanted We are looking for:

- Mature
- Friendly, outgoing and energetic
- Strong interpersonal and networking skills
- Responsible and independent
- Interested in working with children and youth
- Committed to the project
